Laces and Embs.

Washington's Lace centre is bounded by a line that marks the confines of our store. We strove for and attained a reputation for our Laces that not all the competition of this or any other city can budge an inch from its position. We have nursed this department with so much care that it has become a household name.

MORE GOOD STORE NEWS.

Always something interesting—we have just been informed by wire that 10,000 yards of very fine quality Mousseline de Soie remnants were being shipped to us in time for Monday's selling—this announcement was a very pleasing message, because the goods are of the highest standard as to weave, coloring, and patterns. They represent dots, rings, dice spots, and other neat and sedate effects. These goods come to you at a very opportune time, because they are midsummer fabrics and very much in demand—worth 50c per yard—placed on sale, first floor, centre bargain tables, at

Trunks, Valises, and Telescopes.

Those that have any idea of taking a vacation this summer or making a trip to the Pan-American Exposition, should be thinking about a trunk or grip of some sort—and if you are liberal with your thoughts, you will surely think of such values as these:

Canvas-covered Trunks, iron bottom, Yale lock, heavy malleable iron-bound corners, riveted hardwood slats.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

Won by Choir Boys.

The St. John's choir, which defeated the Young Senators by the score of 4 to 2 yesterday morning, the feat of the game was the pitching of Jack House, of the winning side.

Fined for an Alleged Assault.

James Hittler, colored, was fined $2 by Judge Scott in the Police Court yesterday for an alleged assault on William A. Hall, also colored. Hittler said Hall had struck a negro of his who is simple, and that the trouble arose out of that.

Fined the Value of the Ring.

Thomas Wilson and Thomas Sipe, each about twenty years of age, were charged in the Police Court yesterday with an attempt to steal a diamond ring valued at $20 from Miss Abbie Bryant. They denied their guilt, but were fined $5 each.

Sent to the Reform School.

James Hamilton, colored, denied that he stole two bottles of milk from John W. Costley, and was confronted with that charge in the Police Court yesterday. Hamilton is sixteen years old. The evidence that he got the milk was strong, and Judge Scott sent him to the Reform School.

A Baltimore Position Accepted.

Col. C. F. Gaiz, formerly a member of the military staff of the Governor of Colorado, and who has resided in Washington for some time, has accepted a position with a large Baltimore firm. He will leave for that city to assume the duties of his new position at an early date.

Claims He Was Assaulted.

James DeBelle, of 914 G Street southwest, was taken to the Emergency Hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from a bruised and cut head. He informed the police that he had been assaulted by two white men about 12:20 o'clock on Water Street, between Ninth and Tenth Streets southwest.

Marriage Licenses Issued.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Joseph B. Will and Lucy L. Kinsolving, both of Falls Church, Va.; T. Howard Van Order, Baltimore, and Grace Sales Burns; Joseph H. Collins, Jr., and W. Augusta Hitchens, both of Baltimore; Md.; Francis Graham and Julia Hamilton; Louisa A. Smith and Eliza Norman; Louder Cosgrove, this city, and Mary F. Lawrence, Norfolk, Va.

Readings for the Blind.

At the Reading Room for the Blind in the Library of Congress, the programme for the coming week will be: Monday, Miss F. H. Behrend; Tuesday, Mrs. Ella Royal Williams; Wednesday, musical, Miss Campbell's "Hilary" song; Thursday, Miss Claire Murray; Friday, Miss Suse Duffy; Saturday, Miss Grace M. Austin; Sunday, Mrs. Virginia Reine Heine, and Saturday, Mr. A. M. Ganger.

Paid a Fine of Fifty Dollars.

Robert Farroline pleaded guilty in the Police Court yesterday to the charge of carrying a concealed weapon. He gave as a reason for a violation of the law in this respect that he had been held up twice on the road from Hattsville, but his reason did not satisfy Judge Scott, who fined him $50, which he paid.

A Coach and Street Car Collision.

The Arlington Hotel electric coach, in charge of Edward Leach, collided with car 218 of the Capital Transit Company at the corner of Fifteenth and A Street and Pennsylvania Avenue northwest, about 7:40 o'clock yesterday morning, badly damaging both vehicles. No one was injured.

Fined for an Assault.

Frances Bowers, colored, was in the Police Court yesterday with a strip of court-plaster covering a cut in her head three inches long, which, she declared, Ethel Hill, also colored, had given her with a bottle during a conflict in Wilcox Tree Alley. The Hill woman denied that she had wielded the bottle, but the evidence was against her and in default of a fine of $5 she will serve fifteen days in jail.

Fell From a Scaffold.

A scaffold thirty feet high, used by workmen on the new bathroom factory being erected at Langdon, gave way yesterday morning, precipitating John Craggan, of 1131 Fifth Street northeast, and Harry Mills, colored, to the ground. Neither of the men was seriously hurt, Craggan getting a slight cut on the back of the head and a bruise near the right hip, while Mills received a couple of cuts on the head and a bruise on the right leg.

May Lose One of His Eyes.

George Worsley, colored, twenty-six years old, of 1106 V Street northwest, will probably lose his right eye as the result of a friendly encounter with Kate Kijsey, colored, of 829 Sixth Street northwest, shortly after 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The man was removed to the Emergency Hospital, where it is feared that the eye will have to be taken out. The police of the Sixth precinct investigated the case and pronounced it purely accidental.

A Messenger Boy Stunned.

Robert McLeod, fifteen years of age, a messenger of the Western Union Telegraph Company, collided with a wagon owned by Anderson & Co., late yesterday afternoon, while riding his bicycle at the corner of East-ninth-half Street and Maryland Avenue southwest. The boy was thrown from his wheel, badly stunned, and cut about the head and face. Dr. J. H. Brown, of the Emergency Hospital, where he was taken, said that the boy received a couple of cuts on the head and a bruise on the right leg.

Sentenced for a Cutting Affair.

Ada Richardson and Frank Stapee were complainants in the Police Court yesterday against Charles Robinson, who was called to answer to two charges of assault. Ada Richardson swore that Robinson had tried to cut her with a knife; Stapee made the allegation that the defendant had tried to carve him. On the first charge Robinson was fined $20, and in default of cash he was committed to jail for six months. For the alleged attempt to slash Stapee he was fined $80, with the alternative of serving sixty days in jail.

A Colored Policeman on Trial.

Harrison L. Ashton, colored, who was recently reinstated on the Police Force, after being acquitted of a charge of improper conduct toward little girls, was yesterday before the police trial board on a charge of insulting Miss Alice King and Mrs. Shelly, of 455 Missouri Avenue northwest. On May 29, while on their way home about 8 o'clock in the evening, Ashton, who was riding on a bicycle, followed them, taunted, and insulted at them much to their annoyance. No decision has been reached in Ashton's case.

Annual Election of Officers.

The annual election of officers of the Joshua Grand Encampment, No. 1, A. O. U. E., and of J. W. Cropp, G. General; Henry Goss, G. High Priest; J. W. Smith, G. Deputy Priest; Edward Burnett, G.
